

The most sensual experiences begin with our eyes. This insight was the impetus for the Pink Door Design Lab. Products made in homage to creativity, fashion and personal luxury, started as a passion project by one of Canada's most prolific graphic designers.

Pink Door's intricately patterned packaging is instantly recognizable and the hallmark of a bespoke brand that celebrates personal style. An exercise in pure aesthetics, Pink Door products are a composition of visual music that compels our customers to experience lovingly created, handcrafted products made of pure and simple ingredients.
